

This week we have:

- In English Year 2 have learnt about character descriptions, read a book called Morris the Mankiest Monster and wrote about what he looks like. Ask your child about Morris!
- In Maths Year 1 have been looking at counting in 2s. We practiced this by counting 2p coins and ordering numbers smallest to biggest that are in the 2x table.
- In History we have furthered our learning about significant people in the past who have changed medicine. I wonder if you can find out any of their names?

Year 1 Phonics

We have done a recap of some sounds before assessment. Please check phonics folder for update on sounds that need to be practiced at home.

New common exception words:
says, today

We have been writing short sentences also, remembering to include: capital

Year 2 SPaG (Spelling, Grammar and Punctuation)

Adding ment and ness to words...

e.g: enjoyment, penniless

New common exception words:

coming, going, something

We have been writing these words in our own sentences using adjectives and conjunctions
